

Peter Russell - Commercial Director

Peter's skills are in "making deals happen";

As the perfect compliment to our "Ideas led" development teams, Peter's simple and pragmatic approach ensures projects are developed into a readily fundable investment product, an essential element for any would be development partner. His extensive experience in working with local authorities, landowners and retail operators and understanding of legal matters, measured risk and measurable rewards results in projects reaching fruition successfully in good time.