

Outstanding Contribution Award

Variety Club of Scotland presents Dan Macdonald, Chairman of the Scottish Property Federation, this year's winner of the Variety Club of Scotland's "Outstanding Contribution to the Scottish Property Industry - 2006/2007"
The £30,000 raised at the lunch for Variety Club in Scotland stays in Scotland to make life easier for disadvantaged children and their families.

"This award has come out of the blue without warning and I have been taken aback by a very pleasant surprise.

I am passionate about Scottish Real Estate and I am determined that the Property Industry is recognised as a major contributor with outstanding potential to take a vital part in the growth of the Scottish Economy.

My thanks go to all who share my view and participate in our responsibility to ensure the industry has its rightful place at the top table. "
